The Touch 'n Go & United Voice collaboration

Through these specially designed cards, the collaboration seeks to raise the awareness of United Voice's mission and profile the talents of their artists.

Each United Voice member lives with their own specific learning disability, such as Down Syndrome, autism, and ADHD. Nevertheless, with the support of those around them, some of these members have learned to express themselves through art, earning awards and selling their paintings across the globe.

This collaboration is part of Touch 'n Go's sustainability commitments to the Empowerment and Inclusion of the Differently Abled. To do this, Touch 'n Go is proud to collaborate with United Voice, Malaysia's first society led by persons with learning disabilities, with the hopes of giving them a chance to earn a meaningful livelihood and live independently. To empower the inclusion of those with learning disabilities, we are proud to partner with United Voice to bring you this specially designed Touch 'n Go card.
There are 10 card designs in this collaboration, each featuring a painting by a talented artist from United Voice.
These 10 artists have received awards for their art both locally and internationally, with multiple paintings sold to collectors and corporations from across the globe.
Despite being diagnosed with various forms of learning challenges from a young age, together with the support of those around them, these artists have honed their talents to express themselves beautifully on canvas and it is our privilege to share their paintings with you.
Through the purchase of this Touch 'n Go card, you have contributed directly to the artists and United Voice, while promoting the inclusion of those with learning disabilities to earn a sustainable livelihood.
